March 1, 2014 | 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Bemidji State University | Bensen Hall

You are invited to join some of Northern Minnesota's finest teachers on March 1, 2014 at EdCamp Bemidji. The unconference model of EdCamp allows participants to set the conversation for the day by either facilitating learning, having a discussion about a topic they are passionate about or asking for clarification. Even better, the entire event is free! The EdCamp Bemidji organizing team is also diligently working to secure financial sponsors for breakfast and/or lunch. Imagine a day of learning were you get to decide what you want to learn about and you are taken care of from start to finish.

You can register by scanning the QR Code to the right or by visiting: edcampbemidji.weebly.com and clicking the registration button.

We would love to see you there, in the meantime visit the EdCamp Bemidji website at edcampbemidji.weebly.com or if you need more info email edcampbemidji@gmail.com and someone would be happy to help.

Finally, share this information with your colleagues or peers. The success of EdCamp depends on the diversity of its participants and we look forward to having many attendees from the area.
